

OUR AIMS

To seek the best for Peterborough as a place in which to live, work and socialise by

- Pressing for all new development to be well designed and sustainable
- Promoting pride of place - an interest in Peterborough's past and the conservation of our local heritage
- Supporting the growth and regeneration of the City
- Supporting cultural development in Peterborough

WHAT WE DO

- We organise a lively programme of talks and local visits
- We monitor and comment on planning applications and changes in planning policy
- We undertake projects which protect or celebrate Peterborough's heritage or contribute to its future
- We campaign for the enhancement of the City Centre and the proper care of our public realm elsewhere
- Have good relations with the local media for highlighting concern over proposed developments that are detrimental to the existing, or lack design or an opportunity for much better is being missed.
- We help organise Heritage Open Days each year in the Peterborough area
- We work constructively with Peterborough City Council and their agencies

SOME OF OUR PROJECTS

Peterborough and its Villages in Detail - a 220 page hard-back sumptuously illustrated book celebrating details of our built heritage
Foreword by Griff Rhys Jones

Peterborough Blue Plaques - 36 plaques marking current or past important buildings, former citizens, areas where their local significance is lost to history.
Accompanied with a handy booklet, with further expanded details on our website

Sets of Gift Cards featuring collages of building details. A contribution to Peterborough 900 with profits to Peterborough Cathedral

RAF Peterborough DVD an oral history accompanied by archive film on the story of RAF Peterborough (Westwood airfield's role in World War 2)
